Breaking New Ground Workshops by artist Kathy Ellem

Learn new skills from talented artist Kathy Ellem at a series of workshops across Somerset.

Kathy uses a diverse range of mediums, techniques and subjects to create work that is designed to appeal to a broad rural audience.

Her workshops will cover charcoal drawings, colour and acrylic.

Please note: morning and afternoon tea will be provided but participants will need to bring their own lunch for the allocated one hour lunch break. Please bring your own art materials or cash on the day to purchase materials. Please ask for the equipment list when booking your spot. If you would like to use available materials at the workshop, a $20 fee is applicable.

Acrylic Workshop

Kilcoy Courthouse Art Gallery
9am to 4.30pm
Saturday, 10 June 2017 and
Sunday, 11 June 2017

The two day workshop is about learning a variety of techniques to achieve a happy vibrant background before placing a brightly coloured subject as the centre of attention – generally multi-colour parrots.

You will learn about opaque and transparent colours and how to layer them to achieve vibrant effects. This is a high energy fun workshop.
